

Lyrics:

LONG POND SONG

his great grandfather Howland Davis, 1905

arr. Poppa Hank Chapin, 2014

from Jeremiah Ingalls, 1804

ALTO

1) I looked up - on the placid lake, and in the mor-ning light
 2) Again I looked the rays of the morn, the ar - my of the sun
 3) So was our na-tion once o-pressed by dar - kest gloom of night
 4) Three cheers for in - de - pen-dence day, by eve - ry pond and stream
 5) Hang out the flag its star - ry fold emblem of wrongs re - dressed

I won-dered if t'would e'en a - wake pro-claimed a new do - min - ion born un - til its grie-vous wrongs re- dressed From Ply-mouth Rock to Buz-zard's bay
 by fear - less hearts and ac - tors bold

— from the dominion of the night. night
 — the reign of day be - gun. gun
 — fa - ded in free-dom's light. light
 — we'll let the Ea - gle scream! scream!
 — by tran ny long o - pressed. pressed.

6) Three cheers for those our sires of old,
 Dear shall their memory be
 Who wrote their names in letters bold
 And made our nation free

7) Again three cheers for freedom's day
 By every pond and stream
 From Plymouth Rock to Buzzard's Bay
 We'll let the Eagle scream!
