

LONG POND SONG

Lyrics:

his great grandfather Howland Davis, 1905

arr. Poppa Hank Chapin, 2014
From Jeremiah Inghalls, 1804

TENOR

1) I looked up - on the pla - cid lake, and in the morn - ing light
2) Againi looked the rays of morn, the ar - my of the sun
3) so was our na - tion once o - pressed by dar - kest gloom of night
4) Three cheers for in - de - pen - dence day by eve - ry pond and stream
5) Hang out the flag its star - ry fold emblem of wrongs re - dressed

This is the melody)

i won - dered if t'would e'en a - wake from dark - ness of the pro - claimed a new do - min - ion born the reign of day be Un - til its gr - vious wrongs re - dressed fa - ded in morn - ing's
From Ply - mouth Rock to Buz - zard's bay we'll let the ea - gle
By fear - less hearts and ac - tors bold by tyran - ny long o -

night from the do - min - ion of the night. night gun, the reign of day be - gun. gun.
light fa - ded in free - dom's light! light!
scream we'll let the ea - gle scream! scream!
pressed by ty - ran - ny long o - pressed. pressed.

- 6) Three cheers for those our sires of old,
Dear shall their memory be
Who wrote their names in letters bold
And made our nation free
- 7) Again three cheers for freedom's day
By every pond and stream
From Plymouth Rock to Buzzard's Bay
We'll let the Eagle scream!